

FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

SUPERHERO! Paradox Voice Band's 4.29.17 Debut Album Release Party at DaDa Bar

Paradox Voice Band, the Bay Area's ONLY professional, a cappella pop band, will celebrate its four-year anniversary at 6:30 p.m. on Saturday, 4.29.17 with a debut-album-release party at DaDa Bar, the reigning champion of the city's nouveau-Bohemian art movement, located in the Union Square. All party guests will receive a complimentary copy of "SUPERHERO," Paradox's brand new, full-length CD, mixed and mastered entirely by Grammy-winning producer Bill Hare! The groundbreaking album includes fresh, fun, covers and ingenious mash-ups of the latest chart-toppers like 24K Magic, Can't Stop the Feeling, and Starboy, plus such tried-and-true crowd-pleasers as Michael Jackson's Rock with You, Donna Summer's Bad Girls, and Whitney Houston's I Wanna Dance with Somebody, all performed using voices only – no other musical instruments. Paradox will perform throughout the upscale cocktail-mixer-concert event, joined by Billboard recording artist Raquela, whose soaring vocals infuse PVB's cover of Hello with raw, emotional power. With "red carpet" VIP photos and a catered meet-and-greet with the band kicking off the evening, guests will enjoy complimentary signature cocktails and tray-service of hearty appetizers. Adding to the frivolity, the city's most hilarious and colorful "celebritainers" will raffle off fabulous prizes to the who's-who crowd of musicians and artists of every genre. "SUPERHERO" is a 21+ event and is open to the public. Early-bird tickets starting at just $15 may be purchased at: www.ParadoxVoiceBand.com/Tickets, where tracks from the album also may be heard. DaDa Bar is located at 65 Post Street (at Montgomery), San Francisco, CA 94104 – less than one block from the Montgomery BART/MUNI station. For group ticket sales or the cheerful accommodation of any *disability, kindly call Paradox at 415.385.5055 or write to ParadoxVoiceBand@Outlook.com.

Created by Managing Director Fritz Lambandrake in 2013, Paradox Voice Band is an a cappella pop band of powerhouse soloists, booming beatboxers, and straight-from-the-street rap artists and is the first such band to perform at internationally acclaimed Feinstein's, where the band recently sold out its 75-minute concert. What's in the name – why "Paradox?" It's because the vast differences in the types of singers who make up the band should render its very existence impossible. PVB band mates, whose ages range from 20's to 50's, are Black, White, Hispanic, Latin, or mixed-race as well as Christian, Jewish, Atheist, or Agnostic. *Additionally, 75% of current PVB band members have at least one disability, if not many in combination, including ADHD, PTSD, Anxiety, Major Depression, HIV, and Unilateral Deafness caused by brain tumor. This shouldn't work, but it does, and it's the music that makes it possible. Bottom line, despite all these differences, this band can sing.
